Before You Move

address.

Buying a home and moving is a very busy time — so many things to remember. Use this checklist to jog your memory. Add your own personal list of things to do.

Booking the movers			Cancel pre-authorized cheques for contracted services.
	company. You can choose to have the movers pack everything, pack just the breakables, or you might just want to pack everything yourself. You may want to obtain estimates from several moving companies for comparison. Be sure to make arrangements well in advance.		Inform gardening and dry cleaning, garbage pick-up, newspapers and magazines, diaper and other home services and arrange for services at your new address.
			Transfer trust or bank accounts and securities: establish new accounts with a letter of introduction.
			Cancel or transfer social, athletic, civic, religious or business affiliations and memberships.
If you own your present home			Arrange for the cancellation of property insurance on
	Ask the gas and electric utility companies to read the meters on the day you leave and forward the bill to		your present home; arrange for insurance on "new" home.
_	your new address. Ask your heating oil supplier to fill the oil tank before		Change the address on drivers license effective the day of the move.
	your sale closes; or measure and estimate the value of the contents.		Collect all items that are out for cleaning, repair or storage —dry cleaning, laundry, watches, shoes or small appliances.
	If your water heater is rented, arrange for the transfer of the rental agreement to the Buyer. Arrange for the disconnection of your water softener,		Make special arrangements for the moving of your pets.
	telephone and cable TV.		Dispose safely of all flammable liquids including gasoline used in gardening and recreational motors. (It
If you rent your present home			is illegal for movers to transport them.)
	Give necessary written notice to your landlord and make arrangements for the return of your security deposit.		Have school records transferred.
			Arrange for the transfer of medical, dental and optical records and prescriptions.
At your "new" home		Pe	rsonal Checklist
	Make arrangements for the gas and electric utilities, water softener, telephone and cable TV, etc to be connected on the day the sale closes.
	•
Ge	General
	Prepare a list of friends, relatives, credit card companies, charge accounts, suppliers of service and others. Get 'Change of address' cards from Canada post and send well before the move date.
		_
1	Arrange with Canada Post to forward mail to your new		